

Missouri River Valley Adventure Co-op

Co-op Startup and Organization Ideas

Work with Airbnb, VRBO, Independents

Develop a Co-op - board, management team, crew, or work force

Involve as many adventure enterprises as possible

Co-op members can be totally involved, no involvement or anywhere in between

Ala Carte activities list or preplanned activities

Get town businesses and citizens involved either through shares in the co-op or workforce teams

Scalable within county and possibly other nearby counties

Organize special events centered around the co-op and guests, tourists

Can further the education of the public on agriculture, rural life, timber, public and private lands

Specific Activities Available

Farm and Ranch stays and activities

Bed and Breakfasts, glamping, tree houses, cabins, regular camping

Horse, wagon, stagecoach rides, tours

Mine and logging tours

Day adventures, on the spur of the moment trips

Camps for kids or adults

Bird sighting tours

Wildlife tours

Cycling, hiking, ATV, UTV

ATV, canoe, raft rentals

River, lake runs or trips, guided fishing trips

Corn, bale maze

Hunting; gopher, Big game in season, places to run, train dogs

Coop Management Team and Workforce

Office - Admin

Drivers, Chauffeurs

Hosts

Tour Guides

Ranchers, Farmers

Historians

Hunters, Fishermen, Boaters

Cooks – Caterers

Horsemen, horse rental

Cleaning personnel - camp, cabin, facilities, B&B

Students – highschool, college – for seasonal tasks

Miners, Timber workers

Birders

Rental Businesses

Issues & Ideas

Make provisions for bad weather

Alternate activities

Trail signage

Getting access to property

Insurance

Infrastructure

Office Space – Maybe rent Broadwater Ford building, old Professional building, lot at corner of Main and Front Street, other ideas